Introduction

Daily prayers to God should never be seen as a task. It should be a necessity in our life just as air is a necessity for us in order to breathe and live. Breathing in the air to make our bodies function healthily are gifts from the Almighty. The least that we could do is to take time from our busy lives to thank God for all His blessings. The problems we face each day may look insurmountable, but couldn't this be taken to God when He is our Creator, our Spiritual and Physical Physician, and our sole means of salvation? Won't it be the most natural thing for us to turn to God in times of need? God, in his infinite wisdom understands, loves, and cares for all of us. He wants us to go down on our knees to pray to Him because this act cements the relationship between the servant and his or her Almighty God.

God wants us to remember that problems have solutions which He alone can give. He holds the key to open any locked door. Prayers are the ways to get the keys opening to uncounted riches from God.

Why is there a need to pray?

To thank God for the countless blessings given everyday

To refresh our spirits

To plant and make bountiful the seeds of love in our hearts

To seek His help everyday

To ask Him to change us for the better

To pray for other people

To ask for His mercy and forgiveness for all the sins we have committed

We pray because this is what Jesus has asked us to do

Let prayers be your life!

A life that prays unceasingly is the life that God wants us to have. He wants our life to be a life of worship whether at work or at home lived in the way He wants us to do.

How would this book help you?

Going to church seems more of a chore because of our busy schedules. We put it off, we ignore or we make a mental note to go to church next Sunday. Neglecting to visit God in His house can make us forget Him. This book of prayers will make a tremendous change in your life if you make a daily habit of concentrating and assimilating every word you read. There will be days when you are so busy you might not have time to read them. Yet, don't we also set aside time every day to watch or favorite shows, play online games or visit our social networks? Setting aside a time to pray should be made an essential part of your day, more so in the evening as you look back at the things that happened to you during the day. Make prayers a daily habit that you automatically do every day.

Prayers of Thankfulness to God

Prayer 1

Lord, thank you for the bountiful blessings you have bestowed upon me. My cup runs over with blessings, far beyond my expectations. You have blessed me with people who care for me. You have blessed me with kindness of actions and words from my family and friends. Their presence gives wings to my spirit as I keep my eyes fastened on you.

Lord, thank you for looking out for my safety. Your protection has kept me from dangers that befall other people. I know Lord that you are always with me for the countless things happening around me.

Thank you Lord for the protective mantle you spread over my loved ones. Help me to gain the wisdom to show my appreciation for my loved ones every day. Help me to return the kindness given to me. Lord, I thank you so much for all the blessings showered on me every day. Help me to remember to always be thankful in my prayers to you as I show kindness to others.

Amen!

Prayer 2

*For my life,
For my life's uncountable blessings,
For people who care the most for me,
For our home,
For the clothes we wear,
For our good health,
And the richness of our blessings,
For every celebration shared with family and friends,
For being free to pray
Without the need to hide,
In the language I am familiar with,
Regardless of religion,
In this wonderful country,
of vast lands and beautiful people.
Thank You Lord,
for all these blessings.*

Amen!

Prayer 3

Fount of Blessings

I am so thankful

For the life given

Every time I breathe

Every time my heart beats

Fount of Blessings

I am so thankful

For the loved ones

Sharing my life now

And the ones who have

Moved on before me

Fount of Blessings

I am so thankful

For being one and as one of your creations

From the birds flying in the air

To the creatures of the deep ocean

To the creatures living in the wilderness

To the lushness of a green forest

Fount of Blessings

I am so thankful

To be a part of the universe

Swirling in time and space

Far beyond my understanding

Again and again I am so thankful

To be here

As I have nowhere to go

All of this and much more

I will always be thankful

Amen!

To face another challenging day

Make me share the joy of others

And thank those souls I have the chance to touch.

To slake the dryness of my thirsty soul*

Yet,

In which my answer is always an

Emphatic NO

Even on the face of your offered opportunities

In spite of the love you have for me

I know Lord

You want me to love You,

For my own good,

As You have millions of creatures who love You.

In spite of its imperfections

A love

A love

So beautiful to you

Offered humbly to you

Help me to rise above my situation if it is in your will. Help me to make something of myself, to make use of the talents you have so generously given. Help me to use them not only for my advantage, but for your greater glory

Amen!

Prayer 89

Dear Lord,

Grant me the vision to make me go in the direction that you have planned for me.

Give me wisdom to face my uncertain future. Guide me Lord so I could face each day with confidence.

Make me successful for your greater glory and not for mine

Amen!

Prayer 90

O God, I am aware that everything happening around me, from the universe, to the world, and to my simple life come from you. I know that everything goes as it should because of your power to hold them.

I ask Lord for guidance in every deal I have with other people. Teach me to love my work, to be conscientious in doing it, and never to shirk responsibilities that go with it.

Take hold of my tongue, actions, and efforts. Make them worthy of you.

Amen!

Prayer 91

Lord, I seek your presence today because I want you to take over my life. I am afraid of straying away from the best path if I have to choose my own direction.

Lord, the need to be successful in all things that I do is in me because I want to do it for you. I want to lay down before you the innermost desires of my heart. I want to ask for blessings from you to be with my plans.

I have my dreams and hopes and I give them all to you for you know what is best for me Lord. I can only plan but the final decision will have to come from you.

Amen!

Prayer 92

Lord, teach me your ways because my understanding all of them would be next to impossible. I ask only that your will be imposed on mine. I ask that this prayer be pleasing to you. Lord, I always try to seek your thoughts and ways in an attempt to live my life just as you want me to.

When I look at the things around the world, I could see the ways and means of people out to become successful. Their ways are opposed to your words and I am always tempted to follow them in my quest for success. I ask you to teach me your ways Lord so I would know what to do in situations like this.

Lord, I am aware that the measurement of the world towards success is the accumulation of fame, money, and power. I am aware that even the poorest could still be happier than the richest of men. I ask Lord that my measurement of success should be based on your will and my will cleansed from impure thoughts. Help me to not to opt out for success in terms of money, fame, and power when it would mean denying me entry to your Kingdom in Heaven.

Amen!

Prayer 93

Lord, I hold to the promise of living waters in my life as I am like a tree which can only grow when planted in it. I hold to the promise of the living waters that will make me prosper, grow, and succeed. Lord, I seek your guiding hand as I plow on through life and prosper in everything I lay my hand to. I pray that I become fruitful by following your will.

Lord I ask for spiritual growth which can be made possible with further knowledge of you. I pray that I may be successful in my pursuit of a life that is filled with your blessings and run the course that has been mapped out for me.

Lord, I want to live as you want me to live and be satisfied at the end of my life that I have followed your course. I want to be called your good and faithful servant. I want to live my life indebted to no one except for the debt of love.

Amen!

Prayer 94

Lord, just as you provided for Jacob, Abraham, and Isaac, I thank and praise you for the same provision you have blessed me with. I thank you for the day by day provision, lasting my lifetime. I thank you for the precious gift of salvation other than the daily gifts of providing for my necessities.

Lord, I pray that this abundance of blessings will continue to be received by my family and me. I pray that other than the material provisions, you will also provide us with the gifts of strength and health. I pray that I grow spiritually and learn your ways by understanding the life of Jesus Christ. I pray that your blessings of grace and love can also be shared to the others.

Lord, you have provided me with endless blessings which I cannot begin to count. They are treasures that only you can give. I pray for the right perspective to look at prosperity and success. I pray that I would not understand them through the perspective of the world. I pray for wisdom to see that your gifts of love, joy, peace, and light is far valuable than the riches of this world.

Amen!

Prayer 95

Lord God, I am aware that my ways are very different from your ways. I know Lord that oftentimes I yearn to be successful in all aspects of my life, from my personal life, my family life, my life at work, my life at play, and my life at worship.

Yet Lord the more I read about your words the more I become aware that my goals for success are oftentimes not the best option for me to take. I am aware that pushing through with my desires will also push you out of my life.

Lord, I pray that I become wholly dependent on you, I pray that I will be successful in your eyes whether I may be rich or poor. Make me more successful in my spiritual life for your greater glory

Amen!

Prayer 96

Lord, I pray that my life here on earth counts and makes a difference. Change me Lord as I travel along the rocky paths of my life. Direct my ways Lord and close doors that I am not supposed to enter, as you also open the ones that are meant for me.

Amen!

Prayer 97

Lord, I want to be successful beyond measure. I want to be rich in wisdom, prosperous, and healthy only when it comes from your hands.

I am your creation and I do not want to beg for a limited life. I want to be treated as your heir to your infinite riches

Amen!

Prayer 98

Lord, please be kind to me. Please make me prosperous and successful in life. I know that only you can grant me this

Amen!

Prayer 99

Lord, help me pull out of my spiritual stagnation. Help me to march forward with my life for your greater glory

Amen!

Prayer 100

*Lord, I am earnestly looking for you
I desire your will and your kingdom
Come down Lord and make your presence felt by all*

*Lord, you know what is in our hearts
Arrange them as you will Take away any evil things from me
And make me share life everlasting with you*

*Lord, I surrender all to you
My desires,
My dreams,
My goals
Use them Lord for your glory*

*I give you my heart,
I give you my soul
Please change them according to your will,*

Amen!

Conclusion

This “100 evening prayers” book has been created because of the importance of spending some quiet time with our Beloved Lord at the end of each day. Every prayer is important to God, but evening prayers more so because it is the time when we ask forgiveness for the sins we did today, it is the time when we thank Him for the abundant blessings He has given for the day, and it is also the perfect time to ask for God’s protection for the night. It is also an excellent time to look back on the things that all happened to you today and to do some soul-searching for the decisions that were made and actions that were done.

God’s presence during your examination of conscience in evening can readily make you pray straight from the heart if you did something wrong, if you said something wrong or if you felt that you were wronged against. Evening prayers loosen, and may even break the bonds of anger, anxiety, and stress resulting to a better long and restful sleep.

Faith is also strengthened and renewed through prayers done before sleeping. Sleep comes easy for a conscience that is free from guilt, anger, and stress. Prayers are good for the health, both in mind and body.

Prayers should be seen as important things to do in our daily lives. Prayers do not have to be considered as a chore. Rather, evening prayers should be seen as a quiet talk and bond with our Supreme Being who is always eager and happy to listen to us.

Prayers are your effective tools against despair, pain, heartache, and frustration. Sometimes the thing that holds us back from saying our evening prayers is our inadequacy to pray.

This is the reason for the book. This is to help you overcome your daily prayer struggle. Praying through these well-prepared evening prayers will one day unlock the doors of your struggle and make you pray from the heart.

Amen!
